

Results of the first European Cup Slalom in Ahrntal valley

The first of two women's European Cup slalom race took place today on the Goasleitn piste in Skiworld Ahrntal. In first place finished the swiss Aline Hoepli who came out on top in an exciting race ahead of Natalie Falch from Austria and Beatrice Sola from Italy.

The Goasleitn piste with its tricky terrain was hosting the first slalom race in Ahrntal for nearly 100 international athletes. Estelle Alphand from Sweden took the lead in the first run with more than half a second margin in front of the Austrian Leonie Raich. In an exciting second run Aline Hoepli took the top-position ahead Natalie Falch and Beatrice Sola and could celebrate her first victory as Queen of Goasleitn.

1. Place: ALINE HOEPLI (SUI)
2. Place: NATALIE FALCH (AUT)
3. Place: BEATRICE SOLA (AUT)

Tomorrow, Saturday, the second women's slalom continues on the Goasleitn slope, again with the opportunity to follow the races online via live stream on www.queensofgoasleitn.com.
